

CERTIFICATE IN ACCOUNTING FOR DECISION MAKING

EDWARDS
SCHOOL OF BUSINESS
UNIVERSITY OF SASKATCHEWAN

Edwards School of Business is just the right size. We offer students an AACSB-accredited education in a welcoming classroom environment that facilitates learning and interaction with faculty and other students. On Treaty 6 Territory and the Homeland of the Métis in Saskatoon and Prince Albert, Edwards offers the social and professional opportunities business students crave.

What is CADM?

The Edwards Certificate in Accounting for Decision Making (CADM) is a new three-course program that introduces you to the fundamentals of accounting and financial literacy.

Benefits

- Gain a competitive edge and enhance career prospects by developing the skills needed to make confident financial decisions.
- Grow your financial knowledge in a supportive and engaging environment, regardless of your area of study.
- CADM is a part-time program, so you can continue to work or pursue a full-time degree while completing the certificate.
- Complete at the Saskatoon or Prince Albert campus.

What you'll learn

The CADM program equips you with the skills needed to make informed financial decisions in the workplace, regardless of your industry or field of study.

Gain practical skills:

- Interpreting financial statements
- Understanding the role of accounting in business operations
- Navigating the Canadian tax system

Required courses

COMM 225.3 - Introduction to Accounting and Financial Literacy for Entrepreneurs

COMM 325.3 - Corporate Reporting and Decision Making

COMM 326.3 - Taxation and Business Decisions

Is it right for you?

The CADM program can be taken as a standalone option or in conjunction with another degree.

It is ideal for:

- Students enrolled in the Edwards School of Business who are not majoring in Accounting;
- Students pursuing degrees in colleges outside of the Edwards School of Business;
- Anyone who desires a standalone certificate focused on enhancing financial literacy; or
- Anyone planning to use accounting in the workplace but who will not be primarily responsible for its preparation.

Did you know?

The University of Saskatchewan was the first in Canada to award degrees in accounting and has been ranked the #1 university in the world for accounting education research.

Enhance your skills

Accounting and financial literacy are fundamental across many industries. The CADM program is applicable to a broad range of career paths, including but not limited to:

- Entrepreneurs
- Health care practitioners (e.g., pharmacists, therapists)
- Engineers
- Agribusiness specialists
- Economists
- Future educators
