Bachelor of Commerce overview

The Bachelor of Commerce (B.Comm.) degree is a four-year direct-entry program. The first two years are dedicated to providing you with general business knowledge. All students take an introductory course in each of the major specializations before selecting a major in the middle of year two.*

Here is what a typical first-year schedule might look like:

COMM 100.3 Business Communication
COMM 104.3 Foundations of Business Statistics
COMM 105.3 Introduction to Organizational Behaviour
COMM 111.3 Introduction to Business in Society
COMM 121.3 Business Mathematics
COMM 129.3 Personal Financial Management
ECON 111.3 Introductory Microeconomics
ECON 114.3 Introductory Macroeconomics
6 credits of 100-level non-Commerce elective

*Acceptance into several of the majors is competitive and is based on your cumulative average of university courses credited towards your degree until the end of term one in second year.

Edwards Co-operative Education option

Get practical experience in your field of study with the Co-operative Education option, which includes pre-placement workshops and a paid eight-month work placement in your third year. The Co-operative Education option is generously supported by Federated Co-operatives Limited.

Commerce/Law option

The combined B.Comm./J.D. (Juris Doctor) program allows you to obtain both a business and a law degree in six years rather than the seven years needed to complete the degrees separately.

Study abroad option

Earn credit towards your degree while studying abroad for a term at one of our partner universities. Edwards offers funding to support students who study abroad.

International Business Minor (IBM) option

Learn the skills to create value, launch ventures confidently, and navigate global markets with deeper insight into international environments, policy, and development.

Admission requirements

For students from Saskatchewan interested in applying to the Bachelor of Commerce program, we require either Foundations of Math 30 or Pre-Calculus 30 (recommended).*

*Applicants may be admitted with a mathematics deficiency. If admitted, students must clear the deficiency before entering the second year of study.

Transfer agreements

Graduates of programs from Lakeland College, Saskatchewan Indian Institute of Technologies (SIIT), or Saskatchewan Polytechnic may be eligible for block transfer credit to the B.Comm. program.

Get a head start

Take an online business course and receive dual credit for Introduction to Business 30L and COMM 101.3: Introduction to Business. For more information, visit edwards.usask.ca/online.

The Edwards advantage

Learn together

Add real-world, practical experience to your resumé through one of our many experiential learning courses:

Identify international business opportunities for a client in COMM 340

Develop a social cause marketing plan in COMM 450

Manage a stock portfolio valued at $7.2 million in COMM 371 and COMM 471

Funding

In addition to general USask scholarships, bursaries, and awards, Edwards has a number of dedicated awards for new, first-time students. In 2025, continuing Edwards students received $2 million in scholarships and awards. Edwards students can also apply for co-curricular funding to subsidize costs related to case competitions, conferences, and more.

USask Prince Albert Campus

Take the first year of B.Comm. or certificates in Business and Accounting for Decision Making in Prince Albert through a mix of online, hybrid, and in-person courses.

Dembroski Student-Managed Portfolio Trust

The Dembroski SMPT is an experiential learning opportunity for Edwards students to work with equity markets in real time with real money. Its current value is $7.2 million.

Rawlinson Centre for Indigenous Business Students

At the Rawlinson Centre, Indigenous students can find a place to study, attend cultural events, and access dedicated student scholarships, tutoring services, and emergency financial assistance. Recently renovated, it is one of the only dedicated spaces for Indigenous business students in the country.
